The First Nations Fisheries Council of BC (FNFC) is a unique, provincial scale progressive organization that offers an exciting opportunity to join a focused and dedicated team. Through the BC First Nations Fisheries Action Plan, BC First Nations have mandated the FNFC to support, protect, reconcile, and support Aboriginal Rights as they relate to fisheries and the health and protection of aquatic resources. Our priorities are to develop effective governance structures, form collaborative relationships among First Nations organizations, and work together to build a coherent and united voice on fisheries matters.

POSITION SUMMARY:

FNFC is hiring two Program Managers in the Policy & Fisheries Management (P&FM) sector. Reporting to the Senior Manager, P&FM, you will be responsible for managing and implementing delegated program portfolios relating to fisheries and aquatic resources management. The role will require creating and managing work plans and budgets, developing structures and processes, and communicating to senior management on program status and progress. The Program Manager will enhance the organization’s effectiveness by collaborating across FNFC sectors and externally with First Nations and other partners (federal/provincial/private). The incumbent is a highly motivated individual that is able to lead and facilitate complex conversations related to fisheries and/or aquaculture policy and management. The individual has a clear understanding of political and policy context on fishery matters and First Nations leadership. The Program Manager will provide strategic advice and feedback to the organization and First Nations in B.C. across regional, national and international contexts.
